

UNTANNED HIDES AND SKINS OF RUMINANTS AND SWINE

In July 2005 the Government of India confirmed that no Sanitary Health Certificate is required for the import of ruminant or swine hides in India.

As with all exports, exporters should have their importers with local port officials in the importing country prior to export.